Students as Krishnadevaraya and Gidugu Venkata Ramamurthy; the Vice Principal addresses the assembly.

The school commemorated Telugu Bhasha Day with great enthusiasm, honouring the rich heritage and timeless beauty of the Telugu language. Students dressed as iconic personalities who shaped Telugu literature and culture: Krishnadevaraya, the great patron of Telugu literature, and Gidugu Venkata Ramamurthy, the pioneer of modern Telugu language reforms.

Addressing the assembly, our Vice Principal spoke about the sweetness of Telugu, often called the “Italian of the East” for its melodious quality. He urged students to take pride in speaking, reading and preserving their mother tongue for future generations.

A proud tribute to the language that has given the world poets, scholars and reformers.

UNITY IN DIVERSITY

Embracing traditions beyond borders

Though hailing from North India, our Principal happily embraces South Indian traditions, dressed in a traditional dhoti and greeting everyone with a warm namaste.

The gesture reflects the spirit of “Unity in Diversity,” a value we strive to instil in our students every day: respect for culture knows no regional boundaries, and India’s strength lies in celebrating one another’s roots and customs.

COVER STORY

Beyond the classroom: HPS at DCMUN and G-Literati

DALY COLLEGE, INDORE • 28-31 AUGUST 2026

Our DCMUN delegation at Daly College, Indore.

This August, ten students stepped beyond our campus and into the grand halls of Daly College, Indore, for the Daly College Model United Nations — our school's first-ever participation in this prestigious event.

Our delegates engaged in spirited debate, sharp negotiation and thoughtful diplomacy alongside students from schools across the country. Standing before Daly College's iconic clock tower, they represented HPS with confidence and poise.

For many, it was their first taste of a Model UN committee room: the thrill of drafting resolutions, the challenge of building consensus, and the excitement of making new friends.

The learning didn't stop there. On 1 September, our students took part in the G-Literati event, presenting The White Lotus by Aditi Krishnakumar through insightful discussion and designing an original book cover that captured the essence of the story.

Together, these experiences sharpened our students' voices as speakers, thinkers and storytellers.
